

Carles Lorente

Carles-Joan Lorente Rivera is graduated in Law from the UAB (2011). He approved studies to practice professional Advocacy (2012). Later, he specialized in Market and Contracting from the UOC (2015). His recent studies have led him to overcome the Master's Degree in Animal Law from the UAB (2016), directed by Dr. Teresa Giménez-Candela.

Practicing lawyer and founding partner of the law firm DL Advocats (2012), works also as associate professor at the Department of Public Law and Historical-Legal Sciences at the UAB. He is collaborating with various local and regional entities in animal protection: associations and dog shelters, offering advice and management of resources. He was also the promoter in 2015 of the creation of the Commission on Protection and Animal Law of the Bar Association of Sabadell, as well as right now is member and part of the same. In 2016 took part and participated in the preparation, drafting and approval of the new animal welfare, protection and welfare local ordinance with the Animal Welfare Regiment of Sabadell.